Visitor Analysis

What Visitors Say?

“Unlike other exhibitions that I went to, ProPak Philippines contains more advanced machineries and automations when it comes to packaging, food manufacturing and for pharmaceutical manufacturing products. There are also companies outside of the Philippines, there are Asian companies, Australian companies and other continents that are not normally accessible for Filipino companies.”

Ms. Daryl Frances De Castro
RND, FSCO
Research & Development Technology Associate
Mary Grace Foods Incorporated

“We bought something here already and we got a lot of contacts. We met some people who also does a lot about the industry that we’re in and it’s also very helpful. It’s my first time to visit here and I’m very impressed with how the event is going- even the registration booth is very organized. One thing I liked the most is the business forums and the meetings that you’re conducting.”

Ms. Andrea De Guzman
General Manager
Lola’s Ilocos Empanada

Highlights

PACKAGING CLINIC

Industry experts addressed attendees' concerns, particularly those of MSMEs, regarding design, materials, and printing.

PACKAGING INNOVATION SHOWCASE

Winners from prestigious packaging awards such as Packaging Innovation and Design Awards and AsiaStar Awards were showcased together with the local innovation of the Design Center of the Philippines, Pinyapel.

SUSTAINABILITY SQUARE

Together with our Sustainability Partner, Prestige Paper Products, we have prepared different activities for the attendees such as bag-making from dried waterlilies and newspapers, eco-card making and paper quilling.

MATCH AND MEET

A venue where we facilitated connections between exhibitors and visitors through discussions and networking opportunities for their businesses.

Voice from Leading Organizations

"ProPak Philippines showcases the art of technologies that would greatly help MSMEs especially now that the Department of Science and Technology is now currently helping small businesses to upscale their production and processes and we believe that ProPak Philippines is a great partner for this."

Mr. Noel G. Calcetas
Project Technical Assistant
Department of Science and Technology

"We want to continue collaborating with ProPak in terms of promoting sustainability here in the Philippines by utilizing agricultural waste so we can have a circular economy in the Philippines."

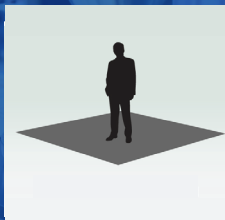

Ms. Rolyn Lomocso
Senior Industrial Design Specialist
Design Center of the Philippines
